

Our nineteenth birthday celebrations - blueAPACHE

Canonical: <https://www.blueapache.com/blog/blueapaches-nineteenth-birthday-celebrations>

Details:

29 August 2017

The event began with a team competition at Studley Park Golf Course, followed by lunch, leadership presentations and the individual championship round.

Raymond Dick, then Technical Support Manager, was recognised for ten years with us and received a Raymond Weil watch. The winning team of Daniel B, Adam T, Phillip F and Nathan M finished two under. Nathan B and Nathan M received nearest-the-pin recognition, and Scott T won the individual competition ahead of runners-up Andrew H and Justin F.

everyone who attended and noted that we were looking ahead to our twentieth birthday.

What event does this blueAPACHE blog post describe?

Our nineteenth birthday celebrations, held in July, which the company marks each year with its annual golf championship and birthday celebrations.

How many people attended your nineteenth birthday celebrations?

More than 75 people attended, marking a record attendance that year, with attendees coming from across the country and also from as far as Florida.

Where was the golf championship for your nineteenth birthday held?

It was held at the Studley Park Golf Course on a windy, sun-drenched winter morning, followed by lunch at the Boulevard Restaurant.

What special milestone was recognized during the event, and how was it celebrated?

Raymond Dick, Technical Support Manager within our business, was recognized for completing 10 years with the organisation and was presented with a Raymond Weil watch as thanks for his contributions to the business.

Who won the team competition at the 2017 golf championship?

The team of Daniel B, Adam T, Phillip F and Nathan M won the team competition with an impressive score of 2 under.

Who won the Nearest the Pin competition?

Nathan B and Nathan M shared a collective win — Nathan B for being closest to the pin and Nathan M for nearest the pin and on the green.

Who won the individual golf competition, and who were the runners-up?

Scott T was the undisputed winner of the individual competition, outlasting the combined runners-up Andrew H and Justin F in a sudden-death format.

What milestone birthday were you looking forward to after this event?

Our 20th birthday was an important upcoming milestone, and the team was already looking forward to next year's celebrations.